After breakfast, set out on a fascinating journey to discover this energetic city. Begin at Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum (closed on every Monday, Friday morning and every afternoon), where you will visit the Presidential Palace, built by the French in the early 20th Century as the residence of the Governor-General of French Indochina. Discover Ho Chi Minh's house-on-stilts and the One Pillar Pagoda before continuing on to the Temple of Literature. Wander through the halls and courtyards of Vietnam's first university, built in the 10th Century under the Ly Dynasty and greatly influenced by Confucianism.
Explore Hanoi's Old Quarter on foot and experience the daily life of Hanoians at the bustling and noisy Dong Xuan Market, one of the biggest and oldest in Hanoi. Sample some of the city's delicious cuisine on a street food walking tour. Taste local dishes such as Nom du du (green papaya salad), Bun cha (Hanoi-Style vermicelli noodles with grilled pork) and Bánh mì (traditional sandwich on a baguette). Stop off at a quaint little coffee shop in the heart of the Old Quarter to witness the making of Vietnamese egg coffee (ca phe trung). Watch as the staff 'perform' this unique process invented during a milk shortage, before enjoying one for yourself.
Later, enjoy watching a performance of Hanoi's acclaimed water puppets. This traditional Vietnamese art form originated in the villages of the Red River Delta of northern Vietnam. Later, relax and dine on a meal featuring Hanoi grilled fish, at a well-known Cha Ca restaurant specializing in this famous northern Vietnamese dish.
Transfer back to the hotel for an evening at leisure.
