This charity is founded by Ms. Aline Rebeaud (Hoang Nu Ngoc Tim) in 1993, serves as a “springboard” for disabled people, orphans, and children from challenging backgrounds in Vietnam. The fact that disabled people and underprivileged children live together as a family is a unique feature of Maison Chance. Accommodation, medical care (including physical therapy), education, and vocational training are all provided at no cost.

The Maison Chance’s activities take place in four locations: The Shelter (accommodation), Take Wing Center (vocational training – job creation), Village Chance (primary school and adapted apartments for the disabled), and Maison Chance Social Center in Dak Nong province (accommodation, medical care, primary school, special needs classes, vocational training, and organic agriculture).

15:00-17:00 : communication with local pupils , there are 5 classes from the first and the fifth grades, our group will divide 20 students per grade.
